BULLETIN.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 29.—2 a. m.—(Via Wireless Steamships Excelsior and Creole to Mobile).—Ten persons are known to have been killed, 150 injured and property loss exceeding a million dollars caused by the destructive West Indian hurricane which struck this city at 6 o'clock last night.

At intervals a terrific gale swept through the city at a velocity of 120 to 130 miles an hour according to the figures of the local weather bureau and the average prevailing velocity between 5:30 and 7 p. m. was in excess of 50 miles an hour. Many schools and churches have been damaged. The famous French market has been partly demolished and the Maseo Temple is a partial wreck, the roof of the tower having collapsed. More than 8,000 telephones are out of order.

Owing to precautions taken on receipt of weather warnings yesterday damage to shipping is slight, except to small craft. The downtown hotels and public buildings were filled with residents seeking refuge from the gale who were marooned there throughout the night.

At 9:30 o'clock the hurricane had subsided.

BULLETIN.

MOBILE, Ala., Sept. 30.—Wireless advices from New Orleans at one-thirty Thursday morning say that ten persons were killed and one hundred and fifty injured by the hurricane in New Orleans.

Property damage was estimated at above one million dollars. The famous French market section was partially wrecked.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 29.—Via Wireless steamships Excelsior and Creole to Mobile.—Five persons are known to be dead and many injured and property loss reaching into the millions has been caused tonight by the most severe gulf storm in the history of the city.

A gale with a velocity of 86 miles swept the city at 6 o'clock tonight, demolishing scores of buildings, stripping the roofs from hundreds of other structures and scattering the streets with broken glass and debris.

Storm Is Subsiding.

At 7:30 p. m. a rising barometer gave evidence that the storm was subsiding, the center passing to the north west of New Orleans. The barometer at its lowest registered 28.11 and the wind velocity of 85 miles was the highest ever recorded here.

Railroad and wire communication with the outside world has been cut off and telephone, electric light and trolley service discontinued in the city. All railroads have cancelled trains from New Orleans.

Wireless communication from New Orleans was interrupted by failure of the electric plant but messages were sent from the Steamship Excelsior at dock here and relayed to Mobile from the steamship Creole, anchored below New Orleans in the Mississippi.

Mississippi Levees Break.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 29.—New Orleans and the Mississippi Gulf Coast tonight were swept by a tropical hurricane that demoralized communication and led to fears of heavy loss of life and property. The Mississippi levees below New Orleans have broken, and at least two lives have been lost in that section, according to a wireless message late today from the Morgan Liner Creole, upward bound from New Orleans. The business section of Biloxi, Miss., is under six feet of water and train service has been abandoned because of washouts throughout a large section about Bay St. Louis.

Last reports coming from New Orleans before all means of communication were lost said the city was in darkness because of the flooding of electric plants. Wind had driven the water in Lake Pontchartrain above the sea wall and Milneburg and other New Orleans suburbs along the lake were partially under water. The advices said automobiles were bringing in the in-

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Marguerite Grosiano, 13 years old, daughter of Vito Grosiano, wealthy farmer and sewer contractor, of Harvard, Ill., near here, was kidnapped tonight by four armed men who drove the machine up to the door of the Grosiano home and, at the point of rifles, commanded the girl, who responded to their knock to get into the automobile. Before the father could load his rifle the automobile was speeding down the road.

Posses were sent throughout the surrounding country, but Grosiano was unable to furnish the authorities with a definite description of the car.

"They took my daughter for ransom," he said. "It's some fellows who have a grudge against me. They want money. I'll get a letter in a few days."

INDICATES PLANS FOR PROTECTION OF AMERICAN INDUSTRIES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—An indication of what the administration is planning to do for the protection of American industries built up as a result of the European war is given in an open letter written by Secretary Redfield of the department of commerce to Dr. E. E. Pratt, chief of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, and made public today.

It is made clear that the government will protect the new American industries from a flood of European competition at the close of the war but the letter also shows that Mr. Redfield intends to avoid so far as possible, any proposals for tariff revision.

SEEKS TO RECOVER $7,500,000

New York, Sept. 29.—Directors of the Rock Island railroad system, under the regime of Daniel G. Reid, and Wm. R. Moore, were made defendants in a restitution suit for $7,500,000 brought in the supreme court today by Jacob Dickinson, receiver for the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad company, the operating company of the Rock Island combination.

inhabitants of that section and that no loss of life had been reported.

Creole Encounters Storm

The Creole in a brief message received early tonight said she was encountering a storm of such fury that it was doubtful whether her apparatus would long remain intact. The vessel reported sighting two bodies near the section where the levee had given way. Aside from the fact that some houses had been demolished by the flood waters the Creole's message gave no details.

Wireless communication with New Orleans ceased before noon today and continued inability to re-establish communication with the powerful United Fruit station there led to fears that it might have suffered some damage from wind. Flooding of the electric power plant, however, was thought by some wireless experts to be responsible for the wireless station's silence. The wind reached a velocity of 90 miles an hour at New Orleans and Bay St. Louis at six o'clock tonight according to reports reaching here.

Wire communication was possible tonight only as far as Bay St. Louis and fragmentary reports from there told of extensive damage to property, but no loss of life.

Few Details Obtainable.

Along trestle of the Louisville & Nashville railroad at The Rigollets between Bay St. Louis and New Orleans, was reported to have been swept away. Few details of the damage, however, either in that section or at Biloxi were obtainable.

Mobile encountered the worst of the storm but the wind here was sufficient to drive the water over the levees at the river front and unroofed several houses. There was no serious damage.

The coast guard cutter Tallapoosa, anchored here, made repeated unsuccessful efforts tonight to reach by wireless the Southern Pacific Liner Proteus, believed to be in the center of the storm off New Orleans bar. No word has come from the Proteus since she entered the storm area and shipping men here thought her wireless might have been disabled.

Reports of high water in Biloxi were discounted by the Louisville & Nashville railroad officials here who said their tracks in Biloxi were not inundated. They had no confirmation of the reported destruction of the trestle at the Rigollets.

The barometer became stationary here at 8 o'clock tonight and it was believed the worst of the storm had passed. The reading at that hour was 29.52 and the wind velocity 52 miles.

THROW REMAINS INTO RIVER

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 29.—The Carranza commander at Las Pelagos, Mexico, headed the attacking party of Mexicans who crossed the border last Friday night and in a fight with American soldiers captured trooper Richard J. Johnson, whom they shot and then mutilated by taking his head and ears for souvenirs, it was reported today to southern department headquarters by Captain Frank R. McCoy. Guadalupe Cuellar, a Mexican, who said he was one of the attacking party gave the details of the fight to Captain McCoy in a sworn statement.

Cuellar was arrested several days ago by civil authorities and is held with the investigation of the Progresso fight, during which Johnson disappeared. Unconfirmed reports said Cuellar had made a complete confession to the sheriff's office but until Captain McCoy's report, made public at army headquarters here today, there was no verification. Johnson's body has not been recovered.

McCoy Summarizes Affidavit.

Captain McCoy, who commands the border subdistrict of mission, summarized the affidavit of Cuellar as follows:

"Under command of the Carranza officer stationed at Las Pelagos with his troop recently arrived from Matamoros, a crossing was made during the night in their boats. The detachment of American soldiers at the crossing was shot up and overpowered, one, presumably Richard Johnson, was made prisoner and taken across to the Mexican side, where he was without provocation shot five times, cut his ears and head off and carried away as souvenirs and the remains thrown into the Rio Grande. The horses and arms captured from the American detachment were taken across and held in the Cuartel of the Carranza soldiers at Las Pelagos which is only a quarter of a mile of the crossing and scene of the fight."

Unconfirmed reports have told of the parading of the head of the American soldier stuck on a pole through the small villages on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande. Johnson's home was in Mount Morris, N. Y. He was 21 years old.

Shoot at Cavalrymen.

Brownsville, Tex., Sept. 29.—Three shots were fired today at a patrol of twenty American cavalrymen near La Feria a pumping plant about 25 miles up the Rio Grande. Two shots came from the Mexican side of the river and the other from some one hidden in the brush on the American side. The troops saw no one but fired about sixty shots in an effort to beat up the brush in the direction of the concealed snipers to see whether Mexicans were gathering for an attack. No more shots were fired by the Mexicans and the patrol continued its rounds.

Major Edward Anderson of the Twelfth Cavalry said that he considered the shooting of little significance. LaFeria pumping station is little below where the presence of 500 Mexicans gathering with apparently hostile intentions toward the border was reported yesterday.

Bandits' Raid Buena Vista.

Nogales, Ariz., Sept. 29.—Mexican bandits raided Buena Vista, a suburb of Cananea, Sonora, late today and later threatened to attack Cananea, according to reports received here from Naco, Sonora. It was said that Charles Montague, American consular agent at Cananea, was directing residents of the town in preparing a defense.

No details of the reported attack on Buena Vista were given in messages received here. It was stated in Nogales, Sonora, across the border from here that Governor Jose Maytorena, Villa commander, upon receipt of advices concerning the raid had ordered troops to proceed to Cananea at once.

Cananea was evacuated several days ago by Carranza soldiers under command of General P. Elias Calles, when all Carranza troops in Sonora were ordered concentrated at Agua Prieta. Since then Cananea has been undefended except by a citizens' committee said to have been organized by consular agent Montague.

"VETS" PASS IN REVIEW
BEFORE PRESIDENTGRAND ARMY MARCHES UP HISTORIC PENNSYLVANIA AVENUEFifty Years Ago the Army Was Two Days in Passing in Review—Wednesday Less Than Four Hours
Was Necessary for the March.

Washington, Sept. 29.—The Grand Army of the Republic marched up historic Pennsylvania avenue from the capitol to the white house today as it did when the victorious Union soldiers were mustered out of service fifty years ago.

In '65 the army as it passed in review before President Andrew Johnson was 200,000 strong, its members composing what historians have called the most efficient body of soldiers the world until that time had known.

About 20,000 Men in Ranks.

Today in the blue ranks as they were reviewed by the first southern born president elected since the war from the same spot on which President Johnson stood, there were, according to the best estimates obtainable, about 20,000 men.

Some of them marched with the aid of crutches or canes. Others managed to get along by leaning upon the arms of stronger comrades.

Many though retrod the path of a half century ago with buoyant step to the air of old time war songs. Fifty years ago the army was two days in passing in review. Today less than four hours was necessary for the march which had its pathetic as well as its patriotic side. It was a day of cheers and tears.

Old inhabitants of this city who have witnessed many parades said they had seen many a year since they had seen such a spontaneous ovation as that accorded to the marching old soldiers. Cheer after cheer greeted the veterans as the parade progressed and many of them touched by the old tunes they know so well and by the warmth of the reception given them, brushed their damp eyes with their handkerchiefs.

Few Forced to Retire.

The weather was ideal. A chilly wind, tempered by the sun and a cloudless sky, made the day all that could have been desired. Only a few of the veterans were forced to retire from the ranks because of exhaustion. Ambulances were kept busy, however, by the few who were overcome and by women and children who fainted or were slightly hurt in the crowds which almost rivalled those which gather for inaugurations.

Seated with President Wilson in the white house reviewing stand was Colonel David J. Palmer, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., and Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles, grand marshal of the parade, took a place in the president's box after the head of the long procession had passed.

Secretary Garrison of the war department and Secretary Daniels of the navy were in boxes on either side of the President. Chief Justice White, a confederate veteran, Sir Philip Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, and J. J. Jusserand, the French ambassador, occupied seats nearby. At the reviewing stand was a guard of honor, composed of soldiers, sailors and marines. Above floated a large American flag with the flags of the secretaries of war and navy beside it. One section of the stand was occupied by Civil War nurses, whom many of the veterans saluted as they passed by.

Tonight a number of re-unions were held in Camp Matthew G. Emery and before a "dog watch" reunion of the naval and marine veterans, Secretary Daniels discussed the famous blockade and the effective service rendered by the navy during the entire war.

AMEND RULE BARRING CHICAGO
TEACHERS FROM FEDERATION

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—An amendment to the rule of the board of education prohibiting teachers from holding membership in the Chicago Teachers' Federation was passed at today's meeting of the board.

Superior Court Judge John M. O'Connor issued an injunction recently restraining the board from enforcing original rule. This rule prohibited membership by members of the education department of board in any organization having officers not employed by the board or in organizations affiliated with the Federation of Labor.

In the amendment offered Dr. Jacob Loeb today said that part of the rule relating to the officers not being members of the teaching force was stricken out.

BULLARD DIRECTS TESTS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Wireless telephone communication across the continent was accomplished for the first time today when experiments extending over several months culminated in successful transmission of the human voice by radio from the great naval plant at Arlington, Va., across the continent to the station at Mare Island, Calif., 2,500 miles away.

Bullard Conducts Experiments.

The experiments were conducted under direction of Captain Bullard, chief of the navy's radio service, in co-operation with the American Telephone & Telegraph company and the Western Electric company. Secretary Daniels, announcing the result tonight, predicted that further development of wireless telephony would make great changes in long distance communication both for military and naval service and in commercial usage.

Successful operation of a device for automatically transferring to the radio telephone conversations originating on metallic circuits also was accomplished in today's tests. President Theodore N. Vail and other officials of the American Telephone & Telegraph company at New York, talked easily with the Mare Island station, the conversation traveling over an ordinary metallic line from New York to Arlington and thence by radio across the continent.

"The fact that the voices can be started on a land wire and automatically transmitted to a voice radio transmitter," said Secy. Daniels, "holds out hope that persons inland should readily be put in touch by telephone with others at sea through some central transmitting station."

Formal Announcement of Result.

The navy department's formal announcement was:

"Secretary Daniels is pleased to announce the successful outcome of the experiments which have been carried on for the last few months by the American Telephone & Telegraph company and Western Electric company, in co-operation with radio stations under jurisdiction of the navy department by which long distance wireless telephony has been made possible. Today, September 29th, speech was successfully transmitted from the Arlington radio station to the radio station at Mare Island, Calif., and there successfully received, thus making possible conversation without wires over a distance of approximately 2,500 miles, the first time this great distance has been covered by wireless telephony. In the first experiments today the voice was successfully transmitted by radio to Mare Island from Arlington, the return answers and communications being made over the trans-continental land telephone line. This was successfully accomplished in the presence of officials and engineers of the Western Electric company, a representative of the signal corps of the army, representatives of the technical and operating departments of the navy department and a few other interested parties."

"After this successful demonstration conversation originating in New York was transmitted over the land line to Arlington, there automatically connected to the radio transmitter which carried the voice to Mare Island where it was clearly and distinctly received, and answers and other conversation were from there transmitted over the trans-continental line to the originating office in New York."

Converse for Several Minutes.

New York, Sept. 29.—President Vail, surrounded by a few officials of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, picked up the transmitter in his office here and called John J. Carty, the chief engineer at San Francisco. The latter replied almost instantaneously and the men conversed for several minutes in a clear, distinct tone. The transmission of audible speech to Europe by wireless can be taken as an assured fact, in the opinion of officials of the company here, who added that it would have been attempted before this but for the European war. They declared that talking from New York across the Atlantic and from here to Japan is now but a matter of installing the necessary apparatus.

BANKERS MAKE PLANS
TO MARKET BONDSENTIRE PROGRAM MAY BE MADE
PUBLIC TODAYPresident of One of the Largest New York Banks Believes Fully Sixty
Per Cent of the Issue of Anglo-
French Bonds Will Be Subscribed in New York.

New York, Sept. 29.—Representatives of many banking and investment houses met today at the office of J. P. Morgan & Co., to formulate a definite program for placing on the American market the $500,000,000 joint Anglo-French five year bonds, soon to be issued to secure the credit loan to Great Britain and France such rapid progress was made during their protracted meeting that the entire program probably will be in shape to make public tomorrow.

Bankers Are Jubilant.

Bankers who have worked with the Anglo-French commission perfecting the plan announced last night were jubilant today over the outcome and the prospect. There was no doubt, they said that the entire issue would be placed without great difficulty. At the Morgan office it was thought that the big issue might be oversubscribed. From every section of the country, it was said had come wholesale assurances of support.

Fully sixty per cent of the issue in the opinion of the president of one of the largest banks here, will be subscribed in New York city alone. This would leave $200,000,000 to be placed elsewhere. He thought this could be readily done, although, in his opinion bankers in Chicago and other middle western cities would not subscribe heavily, if at all. In Chicago, he said, many bankers would otherwise subscribe, which prevented from doing so by the large pro-German element among their depositors. Opposition had developed there, he said, on the part of certain large manufacturing interests also. Local syndicates in the chief money centers of the country will assume control of the sale of bonds in their sections.

Invite Participation.

At the conclusion of today's conference, J. P. Morgan & Co., sent telegrams to bankers in about a dozen cities which had not heretofore been mentioned in connection with the project. These telegrams outlined the local plan and invited the recipients to join the syndicate. It became known tonight that an energetic selling campaign will be made of leading bond houses in disposing of the issue and that bond salesmen would travel the country in numbers to interest investors.

In the light of assurances received today, the belief prevailed among bankers that the loan would be a popular one; that it would be largely absorbed by investors and that the proportion of the issue remaining in the hands of the banks would not be great. A report that not more than $100,000,000 worth of bonds could be sold investors at present was denied by the president of a large New York bank.

The proceeds of the loan will be available to the British and French governments rather than directly to importers in Great Britain and France.

CEDAR RAPIDS LABORER KILLS
WIFE AND COMMITS SUICIDE

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Sept. 29.—While the dining room of the Cedar Rapids Country club house was thronged with dinner guests, shortly before 6 o'clock tonight, Joseph Lesinger, a laborer of this city, entered the kitchen and fired two shots into the back of his estranged wife, Mrs. Jennie Lesinger, who is employed as stewardess at the club house. Lesinger then walked out of the building and disappeared into the woods bounding the golf course. He was found later by detectives, lying unconscious in a ravine, having shot himself through the head in an attempt at suicide, and died later in a local hospital. The woman is not expected to recover.

ALLIES REPORT

Reached Hill 140, Directly East of Vimy

ACCOUNTS CONTRADICT

Heaviest Fighting is Going on East of Lebassee Canal—
Germans Reinforce Line

STRIKING HARD AT RUSSIANS

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Allies' great offensive in Artois and the Champagne is still being persevered and according to French accounts, which are, however, contradicted by the German official reports, further progress has been made in both areas. In Artois the French claim to have reached Hill 140, which lies directly east of Vimy and is the culminating point of the crests named after that town. The importance of the hill lies in the fact that it commands the plains to the east, the network of roads and the railway which runs from Lens southward.

So far as Champagne is concerned the French appear at present to be making their chief effort towards the railroad junction north of Massiegh, which accounts for the desperate efforts of the Germans to stem the tide and for the crown prince's counterstroke in the Argonne as this railway connects the German army in the Argonne with its base at Vouziers.

Bring Troops From East.

Perhaps the heaviest fighting since the offensive began is now going on south of Lebassee canal and the Germans have brought up reinforcements against both the British and French and are making every effort to retrieve the lost ground. Belgium dispatches from Holland say has been denuded of troops, while German detachments are even being removed from the eastern front to meet what is now known to be the greatest effort made in the west since the armistice took up their present position from Belgium to Switzerland.

The Germans are trying to divert the allies by a heavy artillery bombardment north and south of the Aisne, but plans having been made by Gen. Joffre the French are striking with all the forces at their command at the points selected. It is reported that the German emperor has arrived at the western front and that he has dismissed some of his generals for allowing their lines to be pressed back to almost the breaking point.

Striking Hard at Russians.

Despite the transfer of some troops to the west, the Germans continue to strike hard at the Russians practically all along their front. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg is delivering heavy strokes against Dvinsk, while his colleague on his right is pushing forward to the east of Vleika and Molodechno in an attempt to turn the Russian position and now has reached a point to the north of Minsk, while another army is advancing on the southwest.

Field Marshal Von Mackensen and Prince Leopold of Bavaria, apparently are inactive, owing doubtless to the marshes which are now impassable, but General Von Linsingen is still pressing hard on the Russians in Volhynia.

It is expected that the weather will soon put an end to the operations in the east, as with the continued rains the rivers cannot be forded and the Russians wherever possible are getting behind them.

The British have inflicted another serious defeat on the Turks in Mesopotamia. The Tigris army, after suffering heavy losses in its flight toward Bagdad, thus the three armies which the Turks sent to Mesopotamia against the Anglo-Indian invaders have been scattered. In May the Tigris army was driven back from Kurna to north of Amara; the army of the Karun was driven from Ahwaz and the army of the Euphrates was last heard from as fugitive on the river somewhere north of Nairia. It is again reported that an Austro-German army 300,000 strong is assembling for an offensive against Serbia.

START MOVE FOR STATE-WIDE PROHIBITION

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 29.—Nebraska's initial move for state wide prohibition was made today when a convention composed of representatives from all parts of the state elected Charles W. Bryan, brother of William J. Bryan, former secretary of state, permanent chairman of the convention. One-fourth of those present were women.

A committee was appointed to formulate a plan on which the fight for prohibition will be waged next spring.

In time of peace, when Republican Treasury statistics used to show a legitimate trade balance in our favor of half a billion a year, we didn't have to lend our foreign customers the money to pay what they owed us.

The political warfare which is raging between the two Democratic Senators from Maryland has produced, in its first battle, a victory for Senator John Walter Smith. He has defeated Senator Blair Lee for the nomination for the Governorship. The Smith candidate, however, will now be knifed at the polls and retaliation will be taken on Senator Lee when his term in the Senate expires, as it will in 1917. The warfare will extend to the national ticket as well—and Maryland may be put down in the Republican column for the time being, at least.

City Solicitor Ryan, of Philadelphia, has set a high standard for public officials by turning over to the city treasurer $60,000 in fees which he might have held according to a court decision. The solicitor feels that the law which permits these fees is not just to the people and so voluntarily surrenders a sum which would tempt many men. There is often a difference between law and justice but it rarely happens that a public official is willing to "do justice" when the law affords protection for an injustice.

Citizen Soldiers.
Regardless of one's private ideas about national preparedness there comes a thrill of patriotism in viewing the military camp for the training of civilian soldiers at Ft. Sheridan. There scores of men to do business men are in strict training, busy with rifle and blade or in dispatching messages. For many of them, receiving orders instead of giving them is a new thing.

Sometimes a training camp or a sham battle seems like a sort of mockery but up at Ft. Sheridan the serious purpose of the whole affair is ever in evidence and the citizen soldiers who are getting a line on military life, give earnest of what splendid soldiery the United States could muster if ever the need appear. There's no play at Ft. Sheridan for sober minded men have assembled there for a serious purpose.

Will the Big Loan Suffice?
With strong assurance from American financiers that the half billion loan to the entente powers is for the very best interest of business in this country, there yet remains the apprehension that the conflict which consumes wealth by the millions of dollars a day may exhaust even that sum soon and that no decision will be near when the huge amount has been eaten away.

"Indications are not lacking that the principal governments of Europe, both belligerents and neutral, expect the war to be greatly prolonged," says the current Leslie's Weekly. "Lord Kitchener has made his demands for troops for the coming year, and while the number asked for has not been made public it has been stated that this plan contemplates a British force greatly increased over present numbers. The British cabinet is deliberating over the necessity for conscription, not only for the army but for industrial purposes as well."

Business men of Switzerland expect a long continuation of the war. They are contracting with American manufacturers for a large variety of articles formerly supplied by Germany, and though the price is more than twice that paid to German dealers, orders for two-year supplies are being sent. This would look as if Swiss business interests expect the war to last that long at least.

Slow in Paying Uncle Sam.
There are many a man of patriotic Americanism who received aid from the government to return home with the European war. Some of them have thus far failed to pay back the money. The explanation may be that it takes requiring tourists a considerable period to recover their customary financial status or that they share the almost universal feeling that it is perfectly proper to avoid payment of a government debt if possible.

Secretary McAdoo has made a strenuous effort to collect all of the money due and now proposes to make public the list of those who accepted government aid and failed to refund. The announcement of proposed publicity brought many to time but there are still others who owe and will not pay and who will probably be instituted when all other means of persuasion have failed. When congress appropriated $2,500,000 to aid tourists it was with the provision that all financially able must repay. No doubt there will be some ready to be classed as penniless if they can thus escape payment.

Typhus Fever Abroad Menaces U. S.

While the epidemic of typhus fever in Europe seems to be on the decrease because the little insect which transmits it paradoxically goes into winter quarters in summer, the United States Public Health Service has issued a warning to all quarantine officers to keep a sharp lookout for the disease among passengers arriving from Greek and Italian ports. The overcrowding, lack of bathing facilities, and general insanitary conditions brought about by the state of war in Europe have made the fiscal year 1914-15 a typhus year. The extensive outbreak which occurred in Austria-Hungary and Serbia is probably responsible for the introduction of the disease into Germany, but as immigration from these countries is at the present time practically nil the government's sanitary corps considered passengers from Greece and Italy of greater potential health menace. The disease has also been reported in Spain; at Zurich and St. Gall in Switzerland; and Moscow, Odessa, Petrograd and Warsaw in Russia.

Mr. Williams a Busy Candidate.

Hon. W. E. Williams, of Pittsfield, congressman from the state at large was in Jacksonville Wednesday no doubt pursuing some " nefarious scheme" to become the next governor of Illinois. Of course being from Pike county Mr. Williams is a democrat and in seeking his party nomination the coming year he is following a forlorn hope. But Mr. Williams is fully aware of that and the republican majority of 150,000 in Illinois, thinks that "something might happen" to republicans and that even to be a defeated candidate for governor would be worth while.

Mr. Williams is very well known here. He was a member of the class of 1880 at Illinois college along with the second Gov. Yates and was also in college with William J. Bryan of the class of 1881. He is a man of ability and character and measures up well with other members of the Illinois delegation in congress. Mr. Williams has a goodly number of Morgan county political friends who are lending him their support in his present campaign.

Stock Men Righteously Indignant.

Farmers in the vicinity of Bushfield held a meeting there to protest against livestock quarantine rulings. Fully 200 attended and a committee was appointed to wait on Gov. Dunne and ask for relief. The farmers complain that the veterinarians who are charged with enforcing the regulations do not observe these themselves are very likely carrying the disease germs from farm to farm. Objection is made also to the plan of killing all infected cattle but this does not seem well founded for it is an accepted fact that the United States is one of the few countries that has in the past been free from the foot and mouth disease and the reason has been that the slaughter of infected cattle was the rule.

The farmers and stockmen of the state, however, are justified in making complaint because the disease was broken out again for the facts show that carelessness on the part of certain authorities brought about the bad results. Neglect in examining hog cholera serum caused the disease germs to be spread again. The guilty officials should be summarily removed from office and prosecuted if possible.

DISTRICT ODD FELLOWS RETURN FROM RUSHVILLE.

Some sixteen Jacksonville Odd Fellows arrived about 2 o'clock Wednesday morning from Rushville, where they attended the annual convention of the local district. Deputy Grand Master J. J. Huff of Cuba was chosen president, C. E. French of Virginia, vice-president, and Don Alford of Cuba secretary-treasurer.

DRAINAGE DISTRICT IS DESCRIBED IN MAGAZINE.

The Engineering News for September contains an interesting exposition of the Hartwell drainage and levee district, giving especial attention to the variable speed driver with which the water is pumped. The article is well illustrated and gives in detail, description of the works, designed by H. L. Caldwell, chief engineer of the Caldwell Engineering Co. and built under the supervision of S. J. Dalton, Jr., field engineer. Cuts used to illustrate the "News" contribution were made use of in an article in the Journal at the time the drainage district was completed.

CUNCY DOUBTFUL PLAYERS WILL BE BARRED FROM GAME

Superintendent C. E. Collins Writes Quincy Management That Five Students in Question Will Not Be Allowed in Quincy-Jacksonville Game.

According to a letter sent to the management of the Quincy schools by Supt. C. E. Collins Wednesday, the five members of the Quincy team in question will not be allowed in the Quincy-Jacksonville game Saturday. Should they play they will violate section 4 of the Illinois Athletic association which says: "Any person unless it be his first year in any high school, wishing to take part in inter-scholastic athletics under these rules, shall have credit for three-fourths full work, or fifteen hours of school record for last semester during any part of which he was a member of any high school."

The Quincy Journal in speaking of the coming game says: "The football squad of the high school, under the direction of Coach Lineberger, is fast rounding into shape and by Saturday, the date for the first game will be in first-class condition, the coach is confident that they will give a good account of themselves, although it is the first game and will be played on a strange field."

The boys go to Jacksonville and will play the high school team of that city. Reports from there are to effect that the squad is a good one and that the prospects are good for a winning team. That the Jacksonville team is to start the season on its own gridiron gives it added confidence that it will win the contest.

The daily scrimmages of the local squads composed of the candidates is proving efficient in bringing out the better points of the local lads. The team is rangier and has showed more speed than last year while it is also heavier and is playing a better offensive game.

Stewart, quarterback, is proving apt in handling his men, and with Heibred, fullback, Stewart and Johnson or Burch for half, they have a combination, of which much is expected. Quite a large number of students are planning to accompany the team to Jacksonville.

EXTRA SPECIAL WHILE THEY LAST AT PHELPS & OSBORNE'S: 25 LAST SEASON'S WINTER COATS, $12.00 TO $18.00 VALUES, CHOICE OF THE LOT, $5.00. VERY SPECIAL PRICES ON ALL NEW MODEL FALL SUITS.

AN INCORRECT STORY.

James S. Merrill recently received a letter from Lewis P. Lake, who is now serving his seventh term as clerk of the circuit court of Winnebago county, with office in Rockford, Ill. In the letter Mr. Lake states that "we have a rumor that Comrade James M. Swales died several weeks ago, how much truth is in the rumor?" Mr. Lake and Capt. Swales were on the commission appointed by Gov. Deneen to secure the erection of the Illinois monument in memory of those who suffered from sickness and death in Andersonville prison, in the National cemetery at Andersonville, Ga.

Capt. Swales said yesterday that he was greatly surprised at the report, as at present he is feeling in his usual health, and was in much better condition physically than he was while confined in Andersonville prison even if it was in the "Sunny South."

O'HARA IN "KILKENNY"

"Kilkenny" is the title of Fiske O'Hara's new play in which he will be presented under the management of Augustus Pitou, Jr., at the Grand next Monday night.

It is by Augustus Pitou, Sr., who has produced more Irish plays than any man in America, and to his credit he it said that all of them there was not a single line of dialogue or of action that has offered the slightest offense to the patrons of the Irish drama.

In "Kilkenny" Fiske O'Hara will sing several new songs that have been especially written for the new play, including "Girl of My Heart", "Contrary Mary Clary", "Ireland is Ireland to Me", "Dear Mother Mine", and "That's What An Irishman Means".

WILL TAKE FURTHER PHARMACY WORK.

N. T. Jones, who for the past six years has been pharmacist at Jacksonville state hospital will leave Friday for St. Louis where he will enter the St. Louis College of Pharmacy. He will take up the higher branches of pharmacy and also the study of pathology. Mr. Jones has been accounted very competent in his work at the hospital.

DETROIT ELECTRIC MADE GREAT COUNTRY ROAD RUN

Journey From Springfield to Jacksonville Made at Good Speed.

George H. Crandall, of the Anderson Electric Car Co., factory branch in Springfield, is in the city on business with L. F. O'Donnell, local agent for the company. Mr. Crandall told yesterday of a record run recently made to this city in a Detroit electric. Mr. and Mrs. Basil Ogg and son, Mr. and Mrs. Crandall and niece making a total weight of 800 traveled to Jacksonville and return at an average speed of sixteen miles an hour. The trip was made without recharging and the car made all the hills with ease.

In speaking of electric cars, Mr. Crandall says, "the question is sometimes asked why the electric car is the logical vehicle for practically every motoring need of a family. In the first place it is a car of utility. Its field of usefulness really knows no limits. There was a time when men hesitated at buying an electric because they felt that the zone of operation was too restricted."

"Today statistics prove 98 per cent of all automobile trips do not exceed a total of 60 miles at an average of 20 to 25 miles an hour, which means that 98 per cent. of all trips are within easy radius of a good electric car. And for this 98 per cent. of trips the electric is considerably less expensive to run, so that, everything considered, the electric car is a wise investment."

"Another reason why a good electric today is a practical car, is based on the fact that an electric has ample power and hill climbing ability to go anywhere."

OLD JACKSONVILLE

Douglas in 1858

By Ensley Moore.

Member of Illinois State Historical Society.

Stephen A. Douglas first saw Jacksonville late in the fall of 1833.

Here he began his remarkable and distinguished political career.

His last public appearance here was Sept. 6, 1858; it was also his last visit to this city, with possibly a single exception—a month or two later.

At that time, 1858, Morgan county was democratic, as was both this legislative and congressional district. The republicans claimed, at the time of Mr. Douglas' election—by the legislature—in 1859, that the popular vote of the state was for Lincoln, but that, owing to the apportionment of the legislative districts, then in force, made by democrats, Douglas secured his election over Lincoln. The state had been democratic for some years before 1856, but in that year Bissell, the republican candidate for governor, was elected, with the republican state ticket. The republicans did not secure power to elect a United States senator, until 1865, when another man from Jacksonville, the greatest war governor, Richard Yates, took the seat made vacant by the death of Judge Douglas, in 1861. Meantime the place had been filled by Yates' appointment of Orville H. Browning, republican, of Quincy, immediately after Mr. Douglas' death, and by the election of William A. Richardson, of Quincy, by the Copperhead legislature of 1863.

It will be recalled that an account of Lincoln's meeting here, Sept. 27, 1858, was given in this series of papers, in the Daily Journal of July 15, 1915. The republicans then—in 1858—had the advantage of following the democratic rally, and endeavoring to outdo their opponents.

Judge Douglas had begun his political life in Illinois when the state had but a small population, so he probably knew more people by name and sight than any others of our public men, and he had the faculty of remembering people. So his visits to this place were veritable "home comings."

Under the head "Senator Douglas" the Sept. 6, 1858, issue of State Register of Springfield said: "Senator Douglas arrived here on Saturday evening, on his way to Jacksonville, and was met at the depot by a large concourse of citizens." It then tells of his reception, when the senator was welcomed by Col. and Hon. John A. McClelland, afterwards major general in the Union army.

It is to be understood that the Register was strongly democratic in politics.

In the issue of Tuesday, Sept. 7, 1858, its leading editorial was headed: "Douglas at Jacksonville; Ten Thousand Present."

It says: "An immense gathering appeared in Jacksonville yesterday afternoon to greet Douglas, in numbers and appointments it equaled any of the demonstrations which have heretofore astonished the people in other quarters of the state. The people everywhere give no ovations merely, but triumphs unequalled. The Morgan county reception was marked by military displays, banners, bands of music and the most deafening shouts. Cass, Sangamon and Scott counties were largely represented, while Morgan was out in full force."

"Mr. Douglas made a great speech, the most prominent part of which was the attention he gave to 'Trumbull. We will give particulars tomorrow."

The Register of Sept. 8, had the heading:

"DOUGLAS IN MORGAN:

12,000 PEOPLE PRESENT

"He Wipes Out Lincoln! He Annihilates Trumbull! Morgan and Scott Good For Two."

Then follows a communication from Jacksonville, signed "D."

The letter says in part: "Today has been a great one in our usually quiet town. With the sun this morning men were busily engaged in stretching across the streets leading from the depot to the public square, an arch, composed of the national colors and evergreens, surmounted by mottoes such as 'welcome Douglas, great defender of the people's rights, etc.' And a right graceful thing it was, too. Spanning the broad street beautifully, and, though not quite so substantial, yet equally effective, I suppose, as the triumphal arches the old Romans were wont to erect in honor of their 'conquering heroes.'"

"The town rapidly filled up; and by the time of the arrival of the cars, near 10 o'clock (having left Springfield at 6:30 a.m.), the public square, and the streets leading thereto, were filled with the anxious and expectant crowd. The vast concourse seemed animated by one spirit, and ever and anon a shout would break out, and be caught up from street to street till the whole air was filled by the sound."

"At the request of Col. (Wm. B.) Warren, the very efficient chief marshal of the day, the platform at the depot was prepared for the landing of the distinguished senator and his escort from Sangamon. As he stepped from the cars a tremendous cheer burst from the vast concourse around, and for several minutes the air was rent with the shouts of the multitude and the pealing thunder of cannon, welcoming the people's champion."

"A procession was then formed, headed by 'Merritt's' Cornet band, from Springfield, followed by the Sangamon delegation, numbering some two hundred, with their appropriate banners, the 'Rescue' fire company, Capt. Parson's Rifle company, and delegations from Arcadia and other parts of the county, escorting the carriage containing Judge Douglas and some of his old time friends."

"The procession proceeded directly to the 'Dunlap House,' where Judge Douglas and the delegation from Sangamon remained and were received and entertained in a style perfectly in accordance with the occasion, and one and all declared that the 'Dunlap House' is a credit alike to Jacksonville and to its owner, Col. James Dunlap."

"The remainder of the procession * * * proceeded from there up State street, and returning passed around the public square, enraptured by the strains of several fine bands, and cheering enthusiastically at every turn."

"The delegations from Concord and Bethel were especially remarked for the beauty of their appointments and decorations. That from the former place was headed by thirty-two young ladies on horseback, representing the states of the Union, and that from the latter place by thirty-two young ladies, in an open car, prepared for the occasion; and the happy faces of these blooming daughters of the Prairie State proved an attraction second only to that of the 'Little Giant' himself."

"Precisely at 1 o'clock the reception speech was made by our townsman, Benjamin F. Bristow, in his usual ornate and happy style."

"* * * welcoming Judge Douglas to the place whence he took his first start upon that career which has been and is ever to be 'onward and upward.'"

"Judge Douglas then took the stand * * * he referred to his questions propounded to Lincoln at Ottawa, and exposed the dodging and doubling of Lincoln's answers."

"* * * He then paid his respects to Mr. Lyman Trumbull, (U. S. senator), and such a castigation as that man received at his hands has not been heard for many a day."

"Throughout his whole speech he held the vast crowd in attentive silence, and when he closed, with an eloquent allusion to his presence among the friends of his early years, the air rang with such a volume of cheers as must have made the republicans quake in their shoes."

"* * * The number present has been variously estimated at from 10,000 to 15,000, and throughout the whole day the most unbounded enthusiasm pervaded the town."

"The day was closed with a display of fireworks in the public square, and a 'hop' at the 'Dunlap House,' and when it was all over, one could see by the long faces of the opposition and the elated look of the democrats, that 'Old Morgan' and Scott may safely be set down as good for two of the right sort in the next legislature."

"At a somewhat late hour, Capt. J. L. McConnell, being called out by some persons unknown occupied the stand for about an hour and a half in a speech directed against all the candidates now in the field, and in support of Mr. Buchanan's administration, as if any democrats objected to the course of the administration, except in relation to this single question of Lecompton, which the people of Kansas have killed so dead it can never live again, save in some discomfited brain, etc."

"This ends the Register's report. But in an adjoining editorial column is an article headed:

LAZINESS.

The trouble with Hiram H. Hazy, whose prospect of riches is slim, is that he is painfully lazy, and work is a nightmare to him. He sees the procession of winners, with prizes and medals bedight, and he, most dejected of sinners, remarks that his luck is a fright. He sits in the shade and discourses of war, and such topics, all day, and keeps up his spiel till he hoarse is, while others are harvesting hay. He talks of the needs of our navy, and proves that our army is punk, while neighbors are hustling like gravy, and earning the shimmering plunk. And so while the others are drilling around in a praiseworthy cause, he sits by the post-office killing the time with a lank pair of jaws. He's talking of men and of measures infecting this land of the free; while others have comforts and pleasures, he's broke, as he always will be. He might have a home and an auto, he might have a watch and a chain, a lawn with a fountain and grotto, if he would be active and sane. His friends are all tired and disgusted, with seeing him sit in the shade, but Hiram would rather be busted than brandish a hoe or a spade.

"The Danite Crew—the Way They Have Earned Their Wages."

This is along with the reference to John McConnell's speech, referred to above. The democrats were in a family row, and Buchanan and Douglas were at such odds that Horace Greeley thought the republicans ought to support Douglas instead of Lincoln. This fight went on till Douglas and his friends, in 1860, withdrew from the democratic national convention in Charleston, S. C., where Breckenridge and Lane were nominated by those who remained.

The Douglas men went to Baltimore and held a convention at which Douglas and Johnson were nominated. This was Herschel V. Johnson, of Tennessee, afterwards president of the United States.

This democratic cataclysm made the election of Lincoln possible.

Capt. John L. McConnell was the oldest son of Gen. Murray McConnell, who had been the greatest friend Mr. Douglas had had in Illinois from the time Douglas first struck this town, which was before he went to Winchester. It would, therefore, appear singular that John McConnell should appear as a supporter of Buchanan rather than of Douglas. But politicians of earlier and later days have always been "leary" of what they call "them literary fellers," and John McConnell belonged to that set. He was one of the earliest and best writers of the state, and was the author of two or three books, besides being a contributor of short stories, notably to the "Knickerbocker Magazine," one of "the earliest and brightest ventures of that kind in the country. He had been a captain in Mexico, and his description of the battle of Buena Vista, in which Col. John J. Hardin fell, in McConnell's book, 'Talbot and Vernon,' was said to be the best account of that sanguinary conflict."

Capt. McConnell died early in the Civil war, having been in poor health for several years.

Reference was made in the Register to the Dunlap House, which had just been opened in the spring of 1858.

It was originally a two story and a half brick house, the dwelling place of Col. James Dunlap, brother of Judge Stephen Dunlap. The latter was the father of the late Irving Dunlap, who was the father of the present well-known M. F. Dunlap, the Fides Aches of William J. Bryan. M. F., in turn, is the father of Ralph Irving Dunlap, present postmaster of this city. It is observed that the Dunlaps are here, and they have been "here" when the roll was called, ever since "the old Colonel" came to Jacksonville, in 1826.

For some unaccountable reason, the State Register failed to refer to one of the most interesting features of "Douglas Day."

In his younger days Judge Douglas married a fine North Carolina lady, named Miss Morrison, who was the mother of two sons. She died soon after.

Nov. 20, 1856, Senator Douglas had married Miss Cutts, a very beautiful young lady of Washington City. In his campaign against Lincoln the bride accompanied her husband through the state, and added much attraction and interest to his visits to the various places of meetings.

Mrs. Douglas was with her husband here, Sept. 6, and she gave a reception to his followers and friends that afternoon, in the Dunlap House parlor.

Not only the democrats, but republicans as well, went to pay their respects to the fair woman, who might become the "first lady" of the land, before the election of 1860. That evening a "hop" was also held in the dining room of the Dunlap. Among others recalled as present was David Ribb, with some of the ladies of his family. One of the prettiest young ladies of Jacksonville who no doubt attended was Miss Anna Ross, still attractive as Mrs. William K. Dewey.

The parlor of Col. Dunlap's old time residence was what is now the northwest part of the office of the Dunlap house, and Mr. Douglas must often have been a guest in that room. The parlor used at Mrs. Douglas's reception was a room on the second floor, the parlor, at that time, of the present hotel. The presence of Judge and Mrs. Douglas was thus a social as well as political event to be remembered. A well known republican of those days, still resident here, says that he went and looked through the window, at the dancers, but "being a republican," did not take part. He remembers seeing some of the Robbs there.

Another amusing incident occurred at the residence of Col. William B. Warren, that day. The Warren house stood where the State street church now is. The house was a nanusome story and a half brick building, with a basement, in which the dining room was located.

Col. Warren and Mr. Douglas were old time friends, so the senator and his wife were at the Warren house for dinner.

In those good old-fashioned days small children were not often allowed at the "first table," so it fell out that Col. Warren's youngest daughter, Agnes, now Mrs. V. M. Kenney, of New Berlin, had to wait till her elders were through.

It also happened that William M. Warren, the colonel's oldest son, was not feeling at all well. So he said he would not go down to dinner.

It was not long before young Warren was overcome, and fell in a faint. This naturally excited and alarmed "Aggie," who rushed frantically down into the dining room, exclaiming:

"Brother Will is dead! Brother Will is dead!"

The effect can be more easily imagined than told. But the startled diners found their repast sadly broken into and demoralized.

One of the younger sisters of Mrs. Kenney kindly reminded her, for some time, of spoiling the Douglas dinner party.

It would be interesting if any of our citizens recall the Douglas reception, and could give the Journal some further reminiscences of the day, if they would do so soon.

MARY PUTNEY CAPTURES HORSEMAN'S FUTURITY

EARN $5,200 AND A $500 CUP.

Judge Ormonde Leads in the Unfinished Arch City Stake for 2:10 Pacers With Russell Boy Second and Hal Boy Third.

Columbus, O., Sept. 29.—Charles Valentines pacers Judge Ormonde and Dwight Logan, shared with Mary Putney, three year old trotter, honors of today's Grand Circuit racing. Neither pacer won, each race being unfinished, but Judge Ormonde did a mile in 2:02 1-2 in the third heat of the Arch City stake and Dwight Logan got two heats of the 2:13 pace, stepping the second one in 2:05 1-2. Mary Putney earned $5,200 and a $500 cup for her owner, Chauncey Sears, of Fall River, Mass., when she won the Horseman's Futurity that had an aggregate value of $10,000.

For the futurity race Mary Putney was the favorite in a field of twelve. At the start of the first heat, she was on a break and did not right herself until all others were ahead. By trotting the last half in 1:02 1-2 she finished sixth. In the next two heats, the filly was on good behavior and won impressively. In the first winning mile she lowered her score to 2:07 3-4.

Humfast, winner of the first heat, secured $2,900 from the purse. Colorado Range won $800, Native Spirit $400 and Bacelli $200. From Mary Putney's earnings will be paid $200 to Walnut Hall Farm nominator of her dam.

Russell Boy was thought to have the Arch City stake at his mercy and sold a ten-two favorite over the entire field. With the Geers pacer barred, Hal Boy was the choice and he won the first heat by having more brush than Russell Boy. Judge Ormonde became a factor in the second heat, winning pulled up when Russell Boy went to a break at the last eighth post. The third heat was hardest, Judge Ormonde standing a severe drive and finishing a length ahead of Russell Boy who for the place nosed out Hal Boy and The Beaver.

In the last few yards of the fourth heat, Judge Ormonde faltered and Russell Boy won by half a length.

MINERS JOIN POSSES.

Walsenburg, Colo., Sept. 28.—Revered efforts to capture the murderer of Robert Mitchell, editor and politician of this place, who is believed to be hiding in abandoned portions of the Walsen mine were made tonight when miners familiar with underground workings joined the posse engaged in the search.

FEDERAL LEAGUE LEADERS CLOSE; GAME TODAY MAY UPSET POSITIONS

Chicago, Sept. 29.—With the Federal League pennant race only four more days to run, the position of the three leaders tonight was so close that Pittsburgh had only five points advantage in the percentage column over St. Louis, which was crowded into third place by losing to Kansas City while Chicago defeated Pittsburgh.

So close are the leaders that tomorrow's game might upset all three positions. If Pittsburgh should lose and the other two teams win, Chicago would lead and St. Louis would resume second place. On the other hand, if Pittsburgh and St. Louis should win and Chicago lose, Chicago would be third. With Pittsburgh and Chicago fighting each other, St. Louis apparently should have the best chance for victory as it has already won more games than the others and has fewer to play. The standing of the leaders tonight:

	Won	Lost	Pct
Pittsburgh	84	64	.568
Chicago	83	64	.565
St. Louis	85	66	.563
Kansas City	80	70	.533

LOOK OUT FOR COLDS---CATARRH

Don't let this Winter bring to you the annoyance of Catarrh and suffering which every man and woman who is afflicted with this disease, has cause to dread.

First of all remember, if you will continue to suffer with Catarrh, it is your own fault. Catarrh is worse in Winter because the most common-place precautions against germs and contaminations are neglected.

We go to stuffy theatres and inhale over and over again vitiated and germ-laden air. We sit in over-heated rooms; neglect exercise, exclude fresh air because it's cold, and in a hundred ways do everything possible to assist in the ravages of a disease that is already making tremendous progress towards a complete sapping of vitality.

It is small wonder that Winter brings additional annoyance to Catarrh sufferers. The nostrils, reasonably free in summer, are easily stopped up by the inflammation of the tender membrane, and the phlegm and secretions which cannot readily flow, aggravate the delicate lining of the throat and poison the system. Hawking and spitting becomes more frequent. In fact, Catarrh is not only a nuisance, danger and annoyance to the afflicted, but a continued menace to everybody. Any one who comes in contact with Catarrhal germs, expectorated or exhaled in stuffy rooms, poorly ventilated theatres or cars, may contract the disease. They'll think they have taken cold, but it is more likely that this insidious waster of strength and vigor has hastened itself upon them. They will soon know the Catarrhal headache, the disagreeable closing of air passages, they may find it attacking the bones of the nose, the tissues of the ear, resulting in deafness, the loss of smell, for no part of a body is secure from the ravages of Catarrh. Catarrh makes you sick all over. It is a disease of the blood. It circulates through the system, and for this reason sprays, washes, vapours and salves must be failures in curing it. You can relieve Catarrh thoroughly and permanently. S. S. S. will cleanse the blood, relieve unhealthy secretions, reduce the membranous swelling. It will literally wash the blood free from the poison. S. S. S. goes directly to the source of trouble, enriches, while it cleanses the blood. It is a wonderful tonic invigorator. Write us particulars of your case and let our physicians help you get rid of this stubborn and dangerous malady. Our physicians are trained specialists; their services cost you nothing. We will take pleasure in answering questions. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores. Refuse imitations. Write the Swift Specific Company, Medical Department, Room 15, Atlanta, Ga.

ACTIVE RELIGIOUS WORK FOR Y. M. C. A. IS PLANNED

Classes Have Been Arranged For Members of All Ages—Special Noonday Prayer Meetings.

The Y. M. C. A. religious work committee held a meeting recently to outline the work for the year, at which time the members of a special character were decided upon for men and there will be boys meetings every Sunday afternoon. It is the purpose of the association management to have all classes that are organized at such times that they will in no way interfere with the work of the churches. It was decided to organize two gospel teams to assist in the extension work and they will tell the gospel story in testimony and song. A series of 15 minute prayer meetings was also arranged for and these will be held at 11:45 a. m. each day except Sunday, and the invitation to attend is general. This arrangement of the hour was made especially in the hope that business men might attend.

The boys' classes will be as follows: high school, working boys and juniors and B. The Popular Bible lecture class will be especially for business and working men. There will also be classes for students of Illinois college and Brown's Business college. In addition there will be training classes and the pastors and Sunday school superintendents of the various churches will be called upon to co-operate with the association secretary in selecting young men and boys for class work in their own churches. The committee also contemplates that there will be some personal evangelistic work and this will be under the supervision of a man who has had special training for it. The work will include training classes, interviews and correspondence work in the churches, Sunday schools and with social groups of men and boys, and also general survey and welfare work.

WILL FILED.

The will of the late Rev. W. R. Butcher, until recently pastor of Joy Prairie Congregational church, has been filed for probate with County Clerk C. A. Boruff. The will was drawn March 12 last with H. P. Joy and W. T. Cowdin as the witnesses to the signature. The testator directs that after the payment of debts and funeral expenses that $100 each from his insurance is to be paid to his children, Harry Eugene, Mary Zelle, Irene Louise and Mrs. W. H. Kloss. The remainder of the estate, which includes real estate, stocks and bonds, is to become the property of Mrs. Mary Avery Butcher, wife of the deceased. Mrs. Butcher and her daughter, Irene Louise, are named as executors of the estate. Harry E. Butcher lives in Mississippi. Mrs. Kloss is a resident of Bombay, Ind. Miss Mary Zelle Butcher is a resident of Boston and Miss Irene L. Butcher lives at the family home.

MUST CLEAN ALLEYS.

City authorities are soon to begin a campaign for a general clean-up of Jacksonville alleys. It is a fact that many alleys, some of them in the business district, are in quite an unsightly and unsanitary condition. Due notice will be given to property owners personally or by publication that they must clean up the alleys in the rear of their properties, and if the order is not taken seriously then the city will do the work and collect from the property owners. The city officials realize that the matter of keeping alleys in sanitary and passable condition is important and they point out too that this can be done with very little effort and expense to the property owners if they will give the matter attention constantly and not allow rubbish to accumulate. The matter will have the special attention of Commissioners Cox and Martin of the street and police departments.

EVERY DAY IS PAY DAY WITH SCHWAB

Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 29.—A fifty-thousand dollar day payday every day except Sunday is the rule at the Bethlehem steel works. Like Bridgeport, this town is rivaling even the mighty Krupp works at Essen. No other plant in the country has a pay day every week day. Charles A. Schwab has 18,000 men working in his big plants here, and he has solved the pay day problem by dividing his men into squads of three thousand each.

The pay day line up is a cosmopolitan gathering. In it you will find Assyrians, Syrians, Turks, Slovaks, Servians, Bulgarians, Poles, Bohemians, Ruthenians, Montenegrins, besides Irish, Germans, Welsh, Italians, Scots and English. When the word is given to "fall in," they line up with military precision. Aside from the regular pay day, there is provision for the immediate payment of a worker who quits at any time, day or night. His cause for quitting is never asked, according to a rule Mr. Schwab has made. Four hundred houses for the accommodation of workers are being built by Mr. Schwab.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to return our sincere thanks to many friends for acts of kindness during the illness and after the death of our father, X. Walter. The Children.

FLOWER EXHIBITION AT WASHINGTON SCHOOL.

A short time since the pupils of the fourth ward, Washington school, had their flower exhibition which was highly creditable. The children have been encouraged to exert themselves to produce the finest specimens of various kinds of plants and flowers and the annual exhibition shows some good results in many ways. The pupils are taught to work, to cultivate beautiful flowers and improve in various ways.

At the school building there was a good display of tall castor beans, large and tall sunflowers and other blooms of various kinds. Those taking the prizes were:

China astors: Wilbur Roland, first; Ruth Patterson, second. Marigolds: Florence Rockwood, first; Walter Bradish, second. Nasturtiums: Clifford Sibert, first; Paul Bradish, second. Myrtle Salce, largest sunflower. Emma Babb and Eleanor Lynch tied on tallest castor bean.

The whole display was highly creditable to the young people and also reflected much credit on those who have been managing the enterprise and encouraging the children.

The W. F. M. S. will meet with Mrs. Samuel Darley Wednesday, Oct. 6th. Mrs. Thomas Smith will assist Mrs. Darley as hostess.

DO YOU FEEL HEADACHY? LOOK TO YOUR STOMACH

It is an unusual thing for a druggist to sell medicine under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. Yet this is the way Coover & Shreve, the popular druggists, are selling Mi-o-na, the standard dyspepsia remedy.

Never before have they had so large a number of customers tell them that a medicine had been successful as with Mi-o-na. People who a few months ago looked like walking skeletons have put on flesh and today are ruddy and vigorous with perfect digestion and good health.

There is no longer any need for anyone suffering or making their friends suffer on account of dyspepsia. Mi-o-na can always be relied upon. The percentage of cures is so great that there is little risk to Coover & Shreve in guaranteeing to return the money if the medicine does not relieve. And they stand ready to do so without any question.

Headaches, all forms of indigestion, spasms before the eyes, dizzy feelings, poor sleep, ringing in the ears and all forms of liver trouble are helped by Mi-o-na. A few days' treatment should show considerable gain in health while complete cure often follows rapidly.

These days are the best in the whole year for the enjoyment of good health, and Mi-o-na will put you in such perfect condition that you can enjoy every minute of them—Adv.

"PETE" HAXTON IS GIVEN MAXIMUM PUNISHMENT BY JUDGE THOMSON

Sentenced to Thirty Days in Jail and to Pay $200 Fine for Liquor Selling—Mrs. Haxton Found Guilty—John M. Butler Charges Sheriff With Selecting Veniremen With Strong Anti-Liquor Sentiments.

After being out several hours the jury on the case of the People vs. Kate Haxton charged with selling liquor in anti-saloon territory returned a verdict finding her guilty on the second count in the indictment. The case was commenced at 9 o'clock on the opening of court and was given to the jury at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Judge Thomson probably will pronounce sentence on the verdict today.

Before the close of court Judge Thomson sentenced Walter, alias "Pete" Haxton, who was found guilty by a jury Monday on the charge of selling liquor in anti-saloon territory. Haxton was fined $200, and sentenced to jail for a period of thirty days. The penalties are the maximum in both instances. Haxton if he does not pay the fine will have to lay that out also.

At the completion of the case of Mrs. Haxton the trial of Chris Bailey was called and the work of securing a jury was begun. Bailey is also charged with selling liquor in anti-saloon territory. Bailey formerly conducted a barber shop on North Sandy street and it is alleged that he was maintained simply as a shield to a "thirst parlor."

John M. Butler, who is Bailey's attorney created something of a sensation in court when he objected to veniremen being subpoenaed by Sheriff Graft and his deputies. Mr. Butler intimated that men were being sent in from the street and that in most cases those summoned had decided opinions about local option. Mr. Butler declared that there was a penalty for making an effort to get on a jury and also a penalty for anyone else trying to get a person on.

Judge Thomson said that either side had a right to object and ask for the appointment of a special bailiff. He granted Mr. Butler's request and appointed Constable J. E. Crum as special bailiff to secure any additional veniremen needed and to have any other connection with the case necessary as an officer of the court. The work of selecting the jury was completed before the adjournment of court and the opening statements of the attorneys will be heard at the convening of court this morning.

The jury which will try Bailey includes Charles Schnake of Merette; W. T. Reaugh, Jacksonville; F. M. Williams, Jacksonville; J. R. Hastings, Jacksonville; D. L. Barton, Jacksonville; George Dietrick, Concord; W. R. Moody, Jacksonville; C. C. Berryman, Jacksonville; George Sargent, Jacksonville, and F. H. Toward, Jacksonville.

G. J. DOWELL OF FRANKLIN CATCHES AN 18 POUND FISH

G. J. Dowell claims to be the champion fisher of Franklin. Last night he hauled out of the C. B. and Q. reservoir a cashon which weighed 18 pounds and 14 ounces. The night before Mr. Dowell caught the same kind of a fish weighing 10 1-2 pounds and Charles Hart, one weighing 16 1-2 pounds. The cashon were put in the reservoir about 8 years ago, three hundred in number. They then weighed from 1 to 2 pounds. It is claimed after a cashon gets to a five pound weight, that they can double their weight in a single year.

NORMAN L. McNEILL WITH BRITISH EXPEDITIONARY FORCE

Former Jacksonville Boy Is Now Located in Hantop, France, and Is a Police Patrol for Calvary.

Mrs. Gertrude Richardson and Earl Richardson have received a letter from their nephew and cousin respectively, Norman L. McNeill, who is now with the British Expeditionary force in France. He is a police patrol for a cavalry squad but does not know what day he will have to take to the trenches.

Mr. McNeill was born in Virginia, Cass county, but resided here. For some time he was student in Illinois college, and a well known athlete. He went to Alberta, Canada, with his parents, who are farming there. He enlisted at Alberta, Canada, in the army about six years ago.

His letter follows:
101st Advance Squadron, Remount Depot, Hantop, France, Aug. 20, 1915.
Army Post Office S. S. Canadian Mounted Police.

Dear Aunt and Cousin:—

I often think of you people, wonder how you are and how you are getting along. It has been a good while since we seen either of you and the longer time I am away, it seems the farther I get away from old Jacksonville. I suppose this is showing its effects on the U. S. A. is it not? It should be a big help to her in the line of munitions and food. I am glad your country has been able to remain neutral for this war is terrible and all Europe is and will be for years, terribly in debt, not mentioning the destruction of many cities and the country and the terrible loss of life.

Chased by Submarine.

I have just heard of the loss of the Arabic, chased the missionary ship off the coast of Ireland, but the loss of life will not be anywhere near the Lusitania loss. We cross just after that affair, and at first meant to cross on her, but finally came on the Camoronia, another large and modern boat. We had a very nice trip, outside of our seasickness. It got me pretty badly and you can surely get sick and no joke. We had a chase the last day and night with a submarine boat, but our captain knew his job. We had a four torpedo escort boat the last two days. England and our camp there was very nice; all the lovely hedges, trees and flowers and old homes were interesting.

Correspondence Censure.

I did not have a chance to see London, but expect to get a pass soon and see Scotland and London. I may see Paris before I see London. One can never be sure of anything, while over here, I am sorry I cannot tell you, what I am or what I am doing, as all our correspondence is censored. Although I can say this country is beautiful and the very place for artists and millionaires. Our camp is near the sea and is very pretty, we have not been in the trenches but may be soon, for all I know. I was in the 31st battalion in Calgary all winter, till April 19th and things looked as if it wasn't going at all, so I transferred to this. Our first stop was a month in Saint Jean's, a small town in Quebec, south of Montreal. The next stop was at Romsey, England, about four miles from the well known Salisbury plain, then to here.

Police Patrol Duty.

I am doing mounted police patrol duty and it takes all my time and gets pretty interesting too, sometimes. If you should ever see Mr. Mark Robinson, give him my very best regards. Also Ted Beadies. Do you know Wyckoff was out in Edmonton, Alta. in the Swift's employ? How is the piano tuning progressing, Earl? You should make good in that line as you understand music so well. Have you been over in Cass county lately? Guess the county is changing some, although I don't suppose there is as much change in the people. Well, I left father and mother well. They will have a bumper crop this year. Charles was running the farm. Our family is somewhat scattered, isn't it? A few years makes a great change. I wonder if we will all ever be together again. Well, Aunt I must stop. I hope this will find you and Early well. Give my best to any old friends. I am your cousin and nephew.

N. L. McNeill.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE SOPHOMORES HOLD BANQUET UNDER DIFFICULTIES

Many Ruses Used by Boys of Class to Foil Freshman and Enter Dining Hall—Some Take Auto Ride to Country.

Despite the efforts of a mass of determined Illinois college freshmen who gathered in front of the Peacock Inn last night, sophomores of the college enjoyed an excellent banquet in the dining hall and a social hour with dancing thereafter. Eight men, captured by the freshmen, were allowed to make their appearance late, but not until they had walked four miles from a point on the Morton road, whence they were taken by automobile. One boy joined the class by being enclosed in a box and delivered by "expressmen". Another secured the assistance of a group of town boys and a third walked in quietly between two friends.

Paul E. Watkins of Petersburg, president of the class, presided. Dr. F. S. Hayden, class officer, was kept away by illness. A toast proposed by Miss Helen Steed was read in her absence by Miss Marian Candee. Following are the toasts:

"Nax gar erchetal"—John C. Irwin.
"Cui Bono"—Miss Helen Steed.
"A Sauce Relish"—Harlan Williamson.
"Das Kind von Gestern"—Miss Ruth Chipchase.

"Adieu"—Fred Bray.
Elmer Lukeman, Miss Clara Lane and John C. Irwin composed the committee on arrangements.

MCNEELY FARM LANDS SOLD IN BANKRUPTCY PROCEEDINGS

Prices Considered Very Low But Will Equal Legal Requirements—J. E. Osborne Purchased Greater Portion of Acreage.

Three hundred and thirty acres of Morgan county land was sold at the south door of the court house Wednesday afternoon in accordance with a decree of the bankruptcy court. The property belonged to Bert McNeely, Gus McNeely and George McNeely, who some time since filed petitions in bankruptcy. The land sold at prices ranging from $40 to $61 per acre and the figures are accounted extremely low. The land was appraised at about thirty per cent. more than these figures. The sale was held by C. C. Berryman, trustee, under the direction of E. S. Robinson, referee in bankruptcy, and W. N. Hairgrove, his local solicitor. Captain John E. Wright and C. Justus Wright were the auctioneers and O. F. Bufile was the clerk.

J. E. Osborne purchased 240 acres. William Luken 70 acres and a 20 acre tract went to Hardin Grigsby.

The Bert McNeely farm consists of 160 acres, and while the land is not of the best quality, it is well improved. This tract was purchased by Mr. Osborne at $61 per acre, the appraisement figures being $80 per acre. The 70 acre tract belonging to George McNeely was purchased by Wm. Luken at $50 an acre. A tract of 20 acres was purchased by Hardin Grigsby at $40 per acre. All of this land is quite heavily mortgaged and the amount realized from the sale will not be much above the mortgages. Although the figures are so low, they are likely to be approved since they equal something more than two-thirds of the appraised value, a requirement under the law.

HUDSON AUTOMOBILE

No car on the market with a finer finish, NONE made of better materials, NONE with a better motor. The day has gone by when men boast of the big prices they pay for their automobiles. What they boast of now is quality, comfort, beauty and service and in these things the Hudson is acknowledged the leader. It is wasteful to pay more than the Hudson price for no car gives you more than the Hudson gives. Talk to a Hudson owner before you buy. Then see R. T. Cassell, the local dealer.
